

Dear Guest | Visitor,

Welcome to our Portuguese Wines and to our restaurant D'Ouro.

D'Ouro truly offers a new dimension to the senses.
We invite you to share unique moments and to take pleasure in your discovery.

We will be always here to guide you through this journey.

Portugal. The Country.

Located in the Southwest corner of Europe, with just over 92,000 square kilometres, Portugal is a peaceful country of great natural beauty, offering visitors an unexpected quality and diversity of experiences.

Food & Wine. Always together.

The richness and diversity of Portuguese wines has added a new and unexpected dimension. Food and wine are fundamental. The occasional modern restaurant apart, tradition rules: hearty portions of local dishes, meat, hams and sausages, seasonal game, an abundance of fish and seafood, the beloved salt cod (bacalhau), copious bread, rice and potatoes. Dessert is obligatory.

The Grapes. What else?

Always present, and always different, depending on the dish or occasion, wine intensifies and helps discovering new flavours, making every meal a truly unforgettable moment. Portugal's winemakers have been conservative in one respect – keeping faith with their grapes. And no wonder! Portugal's varieties are unique, with thrillingly different flavours.

250 Indigenous varieties to try. Are you ready?

No other country has a range of indigenous grape varieties to match Portugal's. This huge palette of different grapes was introduced to Portugal over a long and exciting history of wine-making, traced by archaeologists back to the Bronze Age. Tartessians, Phoenicians, Romans, all left their winemaking mark here. And centuries of isolation then prevented further exchange with other wine producing countries such as Spain and France. So Portuguese growers concentrated on the fine flavours to be found in their own grape varieties.

Uniqueness in every bottle.

Every bottle of Portuguese wine contains the wisdom, know-how and dedication of generations of winemakers.

Their tastes, traditions and expertise have been preserved to create exceptional wines. The result is a exciting range of wines that is as diverse as it is unique. Challenge your senses. Enjoy the uniqueness of our Portuguese Wines. Cheers!

Thank you for your confidence and choice.

Yours,

João Figueiredo
